GLOBAL PEERING AT NYI IN NEW YORK CITY

NYI is an enterprise-class critical infrastructure provider in New York City offering an array of services that address hybrid IT needs. From enterprise cloud solutions to bare metal, colocation and network connectivity, NYI enables businesses to flexibly deploy, manage and grow their IT infrastructure with a trusted and proven partner. To further facilitate global network access, NYI has partnered with DE-CIX, the operator of the world's largest carrier and datacenter neutral Internet Exchange (IX).

EXTENDED NETWORK REACH

This partnership provides low-cost connectivity to DE-CIX New York's industry-leading peering and connectivity solutions. Customers can cost-effectively peer with New York and European exchanges to enhance interconnections and improve overall network performance.

DE-CIX NEW YORK AT NYI

DE-CIX New York operates the largest carrier and data center neutral Internet Exchange (IX) in the New York/New Jersey metro region and ranks among the top 5 IX's in North America. DE-CIX New York provides networks a variety of ways to improve performance, reduce costs and reach even more carriers, ISPs, content, cloud and other networks through a port on its IX platform available directly within NYI's colocation data center facility at 60 Hudson Street.

BENEFITS OF CONNECTING TO DE-CIX NEW YORK AT NYI 60 HUDSON STREET

- Reach over 230 networks with a free cross connect at NYI to directly reach DE-CIX New York

- NYI customers new to peering can try the DE-CIX platform for up to six months at no charge

- Enhance reach to ISPs, cloud, content, carrier and enterprise networks through DE-CIX at NYI

- Access low latency, one hop, SLA backed connectivity with DE-CIX to replace best effort transit to reach critical networks and improve performance

- NYI's managed network and cloud capabilities assure customers get the most out of their connection to DE-CIX

- NYI customers can also remotely peer with networks connected to DE-CIX European exchanges with turnkey VLAN access to over 2,000 networks

- NYI customers benefit with one-to-one Layer 2 VLAN access to non-local networks, further enhancing interconnection capabilities, reducing costs and improving performance

GETTING STARTED OFFER:

- NYI will provide a free cross connect to DE-CIX at NYI's 60 Hudson Street facility in NYC

- Qualified networks will get a free port on DE-CIX New York's IX platform for up to six months

To learn how to access DE-CIX's world-class peering solutions from NYI call 800.288.7387 or email info@nyi.net.